

instructions

Look at the part of the animal shown here. What animal do you think this is? use your imagination to draw the animal. Draw as many details as you can. When you come to the Harvard Museum of natural History, see if you can find this animal in the galleries and see how close you were.

